Office Use - General Guidance Notes:

- This plan shows temporary proximity measures to enable phased return to work strategy during Covid 19 pandemic (2020).
- Government and Employer Guidance to be followed at all times.
- Stay 2m (6 feet) away from other people at all times.
- Wash your hands frequently.
- Use anti-bacterial gel frequently to reduce risk of picking up virus from surfaces.
- Do not attend the office if you feel unwell in any way or have any recognized symptoms.

Office Layout:

- Seated positions as shown will enable 2m proximity to be maintained.
- Standard desk positions are available for a full days' work.
- Booths and meeting rooms are suitable for shorter periods of work up to 4 hours.
- Touch-down spaces are suitable if you intend to be in the office for a short period - up to 2 hours.

Office Procedures:

- Follow operational advice and guidance provided by NSS at all times.
- Ancillary areas can only be accessed by one person at a time. All surfaces within ancillary areas must be wiped down with antibacterial wipes before use.
- Avoid any unnecessary use of office equipment and materials to keep contact down to a minimum.
- Use your own coffee cup at all times.
- Use the desk aisles (where appropriate) to allow people to pass on the primary circulation route.
- Clean down the desk and any equipment before and after use.
- Stay at the same desk for the duration of the work period / day.

Phase 1:

- 24 no fixed desks available during Phase 1;
- 5 no meeting room/booths may be used for additional desk space;
- 2 no large scale meeting rooms may operate with reduced capacity per number of approved seats indicated;
- All meeting room/booths must be deep-cleaned after each user;
- Signage stating room capacity to be displayed at entrances to rooms/shared spaces;
- All ancillary zones (admin/tea prep) to operate with maximum 1 person capacity;
- Lift capacity reduced to maximum 2 people;
- Floor markings at maximum 6 metre distances;
- Cleaning and 2m social distance signage to be located throughout the office.
